When 25-yrs old come knocking, even though we have not been eating much but our weight still increases. Scientists believed that the reason behind obesity of matured women is due to the reduced functioning of Insulin as we gradually aged.

According to Biology studies, humans are the only ones conscious of the existence of the surrounding & will sub-consciously react, response & defense according to external stimulations & chemical changes. Fat cells in our body provides energy based on our needs, however, these fat cells will accumulate continuously & its size may be increased by as much as 27-30 times resulting to mal-circulation & slowed lymphatic circulation. Like all living organism, the human body produces chemical waste which is toxic & has to be excreted out from the body. With age, hormone imbalance often result to localize obesity, muscle-aches, sensitive skin & and in some serious cases...illness.
